DUTY OF THE HOUR.

Theo. Davie's Candidature for Re-election as Attorney-General.

The electors of Victoria have now an opportunity to pronounce upon Mr. Theodore Davie as one of their representatives in the Legislature, and upon the Robson government. If they consider as we do that Mr. Robson's conduct in the past has proved him to be totally unfitted for the position of Premier, and that Mr. Theodore Davie's appointment as Attorney-General is a great wrong, some patriotic citizen, who is strong in the confidence of the electors, should come forward at this opportunity and oppose his re-election, and we are convinced that the electors of this city will warmly and loyally support such a candidate.

Mr. Davie's address is characteristic of the man; it is an attempt to hoodwink the electors, and to create an issue from a subject upon which there is no division of opinion in the city, and upon which legislation has been accomplished. But, will Victorians endorse Mr. Davie's conduct in voting in favor of making the city pay a portion of the cost of the schools, when the other schools in the province are supported entirely from provincial revenue, thus entering the first wedge in the breaking up of our Free Educational System?

If Mr. Davie is notorious for one thing it is in looking out for himself, and for blundering in his attempts at legislation. His Divisional Court Act was a failure; his amendments to the County Court Act was a failure; and last session he introduced a Supreme Court Act, which would have thrown the judiciary and the administration of law into confusion and gave rise to the suspicion that he was indirectly endeavoring to obtain control of the court and do what he wished. It was insulting in its provisions to the mainland judges and would have brought about a state of things, against which the Board of Trade had specially protested; it would have enabled past judgments of the Divisional Court and decisions of the Supreme Court and Privy Council to be reopened and the cases tried again, and would have opened up every Divisional Court case, even when the judgments had been paid up. It would have brought the County Courts of Victoria into confusion, and would have prevented business being transacted, or it attended to, would have made the sittings of the Supreme Court more irregular than ever. It would have enabled a suit to be brought upon a foreign judgment, when both the cause of action, the parties and the subject matter of the judgment and the evidence were all in a foreign place, thus the practices and payments conditional upon success in the United States courts would be imported and interminable litigation would be caused. Fortunately for the country, Mr. Beaven, through Mr. Davie's own capacity for blundering in not complying with the rules of the house, was enabled to frustrate the innocent Theo's little game. But what is to prevent Mr. Davie if re-elected as attorney-general from framing legislation next session to gain his ends? We ask the electors of Victoria is such a man fit to be attorney-general of the province? It is well known such a position is a step to the bench; would Victorians wish to see Theodore Davie a Supreme Court judge? The duty of the hour is to defeat Mr. Davie as attorney-general. We hope a strong candidate will soon announce himself and that the electors of Victoria will unite as one man and purge the city and province from disgrace.

THE SPOKANE FIRE.

List of Important Buildings Burned with Names of Owners.

Spokane Falls, Aug 6.—Following is a list of the more important buildings and blocks burned, together with the names of the owners and the location of the same:

Goetz & Baer, Frankfort block N. E. corner Howard and Main streets.

E. B. Hyde, Hyde block, N. W. corner Riverside avenue and Mill street.

A. M. Cannon, Cannon block, N. W. corner Riverside avenue and Mill street.

J. N. Squier, Grand hotel, S. W. corner Main and Mill streets.

Woolverton Bros., Woolverton block, S. W. corner Riverside avenue and Mill street.

Moore & Porter block, owned by F. R. Moore and A. H. Porter, S. W. corner Riverside avenue and Howard street.

Victor Desert, Pacific hotel, S. E. corner Post and First streets.

J. B. Black, First National Bank block, northwest corner Riverside avenue and Howard street.

Lowenberg Bros, wholesale merchandise, Union block, southeast corner Front and Howard streets.

J. D. Sherwood, Washington block, Riverside avenue, between Howard and Stevens.

Brooke & Fotheringham, Eagle block, northwest corner Howard and Stevens streets.

F. M. Tull, Tull block, southeast corner Riverside avenue and Stevens street.

Kaufman & Tilton, Postoffice block, southeast corner Riverside avenue and Washington street.

Willis estate, Falls City Opera house, southwest corner Riverside avenue and Post street.

Brevoorder & Keats, owners of the Echo Roller and Flour Mills, Howard street and Spokane river.

Spokane Mill company, own sawmills, sash and door factory, on Mill street and the river.

Clarke & Carlin, own C. & C. Flour mills, Post street and the river.

Daily and Weekly Chronicle, Riverside avenue, between Mill and Post streets.

Crescent block, southeast corner Riverside avenue and Monroe street.

The principal residence portion of the city is on the south side of the railroad, on the north side of the Spokane river and east of Washington street and west of Lincoln street. The heart of the business portion of the city has been burned.

Then the fire spread out on both sides of Howard and Mill streets, and all the efforts of the firemen to check the flames proved futile.

The heat was intense, and fireproof buildings were destroyed much the same as they were at the Seattle fire. The blowing up of buildings was resorted to, but here again the flames proved too strong and carried lots of burning paper, shingles and the like from block to block, and again and again routing the firemen.

All the banks and all the hotels were swept away in quick order. In fact the flames spread almost as rapidly as a prairie fire.

The Traders National bank, the First National bank, the Spokane National bank, and Brown's National bank in J. V. Brown's block, are all destroyed.

THIS DAY'S NEWS.

Mrs. Maybrick Found Guilty of Poisoning Her Husband—A Famous Case.

O'Connor Presented With a Canadian Flag in London—Wholesale Forgeries.

By Postal Telegraph.

Liverpool, Aug. 7.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, charged with murdering her husband by poison, returned a verdict this morning, finding her guilty of the crime as charged.

Witnesses against Mrs. Maybrick were surrounded by an angry mob last night on leaving the court and sixty police had to be called to their rescue and to preserve order.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

Montreal, Aug. 7.—Two hundred delegates to the Canadian Medical Association's annual meeting at Banff left this evening by the C. P. R. Toronto sends a large delegation and Ottawa and London are also represented. There is a large number of Americans with the party, Washington, New York, Chicago and Detroit each sending several delegates.

PARTY CAUCUS.

A general caucus of the party National was held to-day at the government offices in response to an invitation issued by Premier Mercier. The object of the caucus is known to have been to consult the party on the advisability of holding the provincial elections shortly.

FUNERAL.

Montreal, Aug. 7.—Some one hundred citizens of Montreal went to Sorel per steamer Cultivateur, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning to attend the funeral of the late Capt. Labelle, M. P.

HALIFAX REGATTA.

Halifax, Aug. 7.—The amateur boat races took place in the harbor yesterday afternoon. The 4-oared race was won by the St. John crew, with the Shawmuts of Boston second. The single sculls was won by James Reagin of Boston, with Frank Smith of Boston second.

MURDEROUS WARFARE.

New York, Aug. 7.—A Times dispatch from Port-Au-Prince dated July 28th, says the Haytian war has degenerated into a murderous campaign and is beginning to look like a war of extermination. Hippolyte's forces are gradually closing in on Port-Au-Prince. Legitime is killing prisoners like so many cattle, cutting their throats in the market places; while Hippolyte slaughtered eighteen men who fell into his hands the other day in retaliation for those killed by Legitime.

BURKE CAGED.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Martin Burke, the Winnipeg suspect, who gave the officials such a long and hard tussle to bring him over the border, was landed in this city last night and locked in Harrison street station.

SUICIDE PUGILISTIC.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—W. A. Delavet, 46 years of age, recently from the east, and who is known to have been in ill-health, suicided in his room this morning by asphyxiation.

Jack Dempsey arrived from Portland this morning. He says he will immediately get down to work for the battle with LaBlanche, at the California Athletic Club on the 27th for a purse of $5,000.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH OFFICERS.

New York, Aug. 7.—The annual meeting of the Pacific Postal Telegraph Co. was held here to-day, Mr. John W. Mackay in the chair. The following directors were elected and officers appointed: Jno. W. Mackay, W. C. Van Horne, Sir Geo. Stephen, Hector De Castro, A. P. Chandler, C. R. Hosmer, G. G. Ward, E. C. Platt, R. V. Dey. John W. Mackay was elected president; W. C. Van Horne, vice president; and C. R. Hosmer, general manager.

ENORMOUS FORGERIES.

Minneapolis, Aug. 7.—Forgeries to the amount of nearly $300,000 have been committed in the name of John S. Blaisdell, one of the oldest, wealthiest and best known residents of Minneapolis. A young lawyer in this city well-known, and popular, and whose father is a wealthy and prominent man, has been robbing Mr. Blaisdell for a long time by a series of systematic forgeries, and when the fact was discovered a few days ago the total amount of his illicit gains was in the neighborhood of $200,000. Owing to the previous good character of the young man and high social and business position of the young fellow's family, a settlement was agreed upon, on the understanding that the whole amount obtained must be returned to Blaisdell. The large amount of forgeries, together with the social and business prominence of all the parties concerned, promises to make the case one of the most sensational ever known in the Northwest. If the matter is not settled at once, criminal action will be begun.

HER MANY JEWELS.

New York, Aug 7.—Smalley's London correspondence to the Tribune says: "No complete list of the wedding presents to the Princess Louise of Wales has yet been published, and none in any case could be given here. But there is no doubt about the general desire to be stow offerings on the young lady. Before her engagement she was jageless, and Lord Fife has no family jewels, yet now they say she has more than the Princess of Wales herself, whose collection is remarkable. Not had she been obliged to rebuke the zeal of her admirers as the Duke of Portland did. It is said of the Duke of Portland that he caused some of the presents to the Duchess to be returned to the donors on the ground that their acquaintance was too light to entitle to accept these gifts.

BURKE'S RESOLUTE LAWYER.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—This morning Judge Baker issued a writ of habeas corpus, directed to Chief of Police Hubbard, for the release of Martin Burke from the cell in the Harrison street station in which he now reposes. The writ was obtained by Lawyer Kennedy of Appleton, Wisconsin, who has so far been refused permission to see his client. It is returnable at 3 o'clock this afternoon, but was issued with the understanding that if the officials permitted Kennedy to see Burke before that hour the matter should be dropped.

VISITING BLAINE.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The presidential party, consisting of the President, Secretaries Windom, Proctor, and Rusk, and Private Secretary Halford, left Washington at 9:40 yesterday morning for New York over the Pennsylvania Railway. The President goes to Bar Harbor to visit Blaine.

THE EMPEROR PLEASED.

London, Aug. 7.—Emperor William telegraphed to the Duke of Saxe-Coburg that he was extremely gratified by his reception here. He also refers to the naval review and expresses admiration of the British fleet.

THE PRINCE'S ILL HEALTH.

London, Aug. 7.—The condition of the Prince of Wales is attracting much attention. On Monday he was compelled to rest while the German Emperor continued his private inspection of the fleet. It is now understood he may not take an active part in the inspection of the manoeuvres at Aldershot to-day. To get him out of the predicament as skilfully as possible, Sir Oscar Clayton has stated he does not approve of the Prince undergoing the fatigue inseparable from a day in the saddle. The Prince is troubled with a gouty affection of the eye and with a recurrence of inflamation of the leg which he has had more or less since the attack of typhoid fever in the winter of 1871.

BOULANGER'S DECISION.

London, Aug. 7.—Unless his extradition is demanded in which case he will sail for New York, General Boulanger says he has decided to remain in London.

VICTORIOUS GREENFELL.

Cairo, Aug. 7.—The campaign is over and Gen. Greenfell is returning to Cairo. A force of Egyptian cavalry is in pursuit of the one Emir left, who survived the battle of Saturday last. This leader is lurking in the hills above Bellano with a force of two hundred men and cannot escape.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—Eighty Nihilists have been arrested at Kharkhow. The police are raiding the houses of members of a new Socialist society at Odessa. Many members have been arrested. The society is mainly composed of Jews.

YOUTHFUL ENTERPRISE.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—Infant burglars or cowboys as they called themselves, were sentenced as follows: Adolph Ritchon, Albert Searle, Albert Fitzgibbon, James Tweby, John Daly, four years each, and Montague Searle, five years.

THE DUTY MUST BE PAID.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—The custom authorities have placed a seizure on the painting "Jerusalem on the Day of the Crucifixion" on exhibition at the Cyclorama. The painting is valued at $25,000 and its owner sought to have it in the country free on the plea that it was a work of art of well-known merit. The authorities claim that it is brought here for commercial purposes and should pay the customary duty of twenty per cent.

O'CONNOR'S PRESENT.

Presented To-day With a Flag by Sir Charles Tupper.

London, Aug. 7.—At the office of the Globe, 86 and 87 Fleet street, August 6th, Sir Charles Tupper presented Oarsman O'Connor with a flag of the Dominion as a token of Canadian sympathy with him in the coming contest. Sir Charles speaking in the name of Canadians here, wished O'Connor success and presented the flag amid enthusiasm.

The Times to-day strongly supports Canada's claim regarding the Behring Sea matter. Canadian opinion here is that the United States will not venture to persist in an aggressive attitude.

Lord Dunraven has positively decided not to send the yacht Valkyrie to America.

NOTABLES IN WINNIPEG.

Goldwin Smith and Sir A. T. Galt There—Medical Association.

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—Goldwin Smith, who has made it a point to visit the Northwest annually for the past four or five years, arrived on the C. P. R. express at noon yesterday. He looks exceedingly well. It is his intention to spend two weeks or so in the province, taking a look over the harvest fields.

Sir A. T. Galt also arrived in the city by the St. P. M. & M. train, accompanied by Mr. E. T. Galt, manager of the Galt coal mines at Lethbridge. They have just returned from England, where it is understood they have been successful in raising sufficient capital to extend the Galt line of railway from Lethbridge into Montana. Sir A. T. Galt will remain in the city for a week or ten days, the guest of his son Mr. Jno. Galt.

The members of the Canadian Medical Association, which is to meet at Banff this year, left Montreal last evening for the west, travelling over the C. P. R. in special Pullman cars. There will be about 80 medical men in the party and about two hundred ladies and gentlemen all told. The trip to Winnipeg is to be made without a stop, the party arriving here by the regular express at noon on Friday next. Here the medical men and those accompanying them will remain over 24 hours, the intention being to side track their cars. The party will be met at the depot by local medical men and a drive around the city will probably be arranged. Dr. Ross was last year's president. The president of the Association for the forthcoming year will be Dr. Wright, Dr. Bell of Montreal is the secretary.

A WAIL FROM THE WATER.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—I think if I call attention to the unsafe condition of the small boat landing at the extreme end of Yates street, the aldermen for Yates street ward should respect my wail. Come now, Ald. McKillican, you are a practical man, and I know if you only take a glance at the landing you will notice the danger to persons using it. With your practical eye you can readily prescribe a remedy. I appeal to you in the matter.

A Lone Fisherman.

THE REASON.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—Can you inform me how it is that it takes such a long time to register deeds in this province. I have some deeds lying at the registry office at New Westminster for nearly two months, and I cannot learn when they are likely to be completed. Surely the government are not so bankrupt as not to be able to secure sufficient help to carry on the public business of the country. Please inform me the reason. Stranger.

The reason is that the government do not know any better. Under their management the province is about bankrupt but there ought still be enough money left from the last million dollar loan to pay for an extra clerk or two to facilitate the registry of deeds at New Westminster. The stupid blunderers are ignorant of correct business principles. That is the only true reason that can be assigned for the present muddle at Westminster.—Ed. Times.

OTTAWA NEWS.

Ottawa, Aug. 5.—A private dispatch from Halifax says the American schooner Vidette, seized at Guysboro, N. S., for violating the customs laws was subsequently released, as the action was too hasty.

The utmost satisfaction is expressed in eastern Canada at the escape of the Black Diamond. This feeling is shared by all the government officials here. Nobody doubts the genuineness of the seizure. The good fortune of the Black Diamond is not regarded as likely to complicate matters. No official action has been taken thus far. The members of the government state that they are ignorant of the alleged departure of the remainder of the British squadron for the Behring sea. The Free Press declares the seizure a farce, proving that the Americans are disposed to back down.

TO THE TIMES ONLY.

Two Hundred Doctors En Route to the Pacific Coast—Annual Meeting at Banff.

Orangemen on the War Path—They Resent an Insult by the Gov.-General.

Special to The Times.)

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—It was rumored about the streets yesterday that the Hon J. E. P. Prendergast, provincial secretary, representative in the government of the French minority, had resigned on account of the public utterance of his colleagues on the dual language question and separate school systems of the province. To a reporter Mr. Prendergast denied he had resigned. "But I recognize," he said, "that the situation is one which seriously affects me and is alarming to my country."

PERSONAL.

Goldwin Smith and Sir A. T. Galt are in the city.

TERRIFIC STORM.

A regular cyclone passed over Lorette and the northern valley of St. Claire on Saturday afternoon. The wind blew with the force of a hurricane, levelling barns, fences and trees. It was luckily confined to a narrow strip of country.

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED.

The Equal Rights Association Upheld by Orangemen.

Special to The Times.)

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—At a meeting of Orangemen here last night a resolution was unanimously adopted resenting the insult offered by the Dominion government through the Governor-General to the representatives of the Equal Rights Association at Quebec, and stating that the time had come when every loyal subject in Canada should enroll himself under the banner of the Equal Rights Association, and also asking Orangemen to place country before party and drive from power those who had betrayed the country.

U. S. CONSUL STEVENS

Talks With a San Francisco Reporter About the Seizures.

"I do not think there is any danger of a collision between the British men-of-war and the American revenue cutters in the Behring sea, but I do think there is serious danger of fighting between the crews of the sealers and the United States revenue cutters," said Robert Stevens, United States Consul at Victoria, who is now in San Francisco.

"Most of the Victoria sealers are manned by Indian hunters. They often carry as many as thirty Indians, all armed with the best rifles and ammunition. These Indians are brave, fierce and warlike. They are the same tribe as some years ago in 300 war canoes and 2000 strong, descended on Port Townsend and even threatened Victoria. They share the catch and rather than lose the profits of a trip they might attempt a conflict with the revenue men. What I fear most is that some of these savage Indians might be goaded on by the white officers to do something that would bring about the most serious consequences."

"Do you think that the owners of the sealers have any intention of resisting authority of the United States by force?" asked the reporter.

PRESUMING ON BRITISH AID.

"Their real intentions are of little importance just now," replied Consul Stevens; "the trouble, if any comes, will have been caused by their attitude in the spring. They gave it out that they did not believe the United States intended to make any seizures and declared that this country knew the weakness of its position to attempt to do anything of the kind. Whether or not they regarded the appearance of several British men-of-war in northern waters about that time as indicative of England's intention to back them up I cannot say, but I rather think the fleet made them more confident than they would have been in its absence. Some of them did talk fight, I heard, but I do not think any of them meant it. They did not think that the sealers would be seized, and did not seem quite to realize that the proclamation was intended to be carried into effect.

TALK ABOUT FIGHTING.

"You remember that the owners of the walter L. Rich, Cammeson & Munroe, did talk about fighting, but when I investigated that matter for the State department I found they did not mean all they said, and had not seriously made preparations to attack the United States revenue cutters. It was pointed out that the Act of Congress and the President's proclamation were pretty good law for United States officers, who, if ordered to seize sealers, would carry out their orders at no matter what cost, and it would be a very grave matter to resist. Oh no; I do not think that any of the owners contemplated armed resistance to the United States, but their attitude was such as to lead the ignorant Indian crews to think that resistance would be backed up."

"Was there any official notification given them of the law of March, 1889, and the proclamation?"

"Both were posted in my office, but I made no special notification to British subjects. Of course, I explained the law fully to American captains, and impressed upon them the fact that it would be enforced. The act of March, 1889, which may be regarded as a declaratory act, was published in the Victoria papers, together with the section of the statutes referring to the laws for the protection of fur-bearing animals, but the papers did not publish the section correctly, and their mistake may have given rise to some misunderstanding. The feeling of the sealers can be best understood from the fact that they fitted out and went on their cruises as usual. Still they were a little uneasy and doubtful. I sent a list of those that went north to the State Department.

"It has been a part of my duty to make reports on this subject since the affair of the Caroline in 1886. You know that the claim that the Behring is not a closed sea is founded in part of the fact that the gaps between the islands that partly enclose it are of considerable width, but so far as I can remember, Russia's claim that it was closed was not disputed from 1824 to 1885, when the open sea sealing began. There was a general talk on the question in Victoria all the time. I think that Gutman and Frank, who owned the Black Diamond and the Lily, spoke to me on the subject. One of them, I believe, became an American citizen because he believed that it would give him some right to seal in the Behring. I have heard, unofficially, that the State Department has been engaged in correspondence on the question for some time and that it is in a fair way of settlement."

History of B. C.

Major Downie, the veteran prospector, is again in the field soliciting subscriptions for a book—Bancroft's History of British Columbia. The work is the only complete history of the province ever published, and a copy of it should be in every house. We bespeak for the Major a cordial reception and several thousand subscribers.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

World's Sprinting Tournament—Wrestling Match—Foot Race.

Professional foot racing has developed very fast in Australia during the last half dozen years. The favorite sport is sprinting, and the middle and long distances do not receive much attention. Advices from Adelaide, Australia, bring word of a project to hold a world's sprinting tournament and a twenty-five mile walk on November 9, December 11 and 21, and January 1. The sprinting events will be three handicaps modelled after the famous ones of Sheffield, England. The walk will be scratch and for the championship of the world. The first sprint will have $2,500 for prizes, the second $5,000, and the third $7,500. The distances will be from 135 yards to 175 yards.

QUINN AND THE JAP.

A wrestling match between Quinn and the Jap, for $500 a side, will take place in Seattle on Friday night.

FOOT RACE.

W. Millington and Frank Leroy will run 100 yards on Beacon Hill for $50 a side. The race will take place on Saturday evening, the 7th inst.

HOSE TEAM.

A meeting of the Victoria hose team will be held on Friday night to make arrangements for the Tacoma tournament.

KILBAIN ARRESTED.

Sullivan has been before one of the courts of Mississippi and is released on bonds. Yesterday Jake Kilrain was arrested at Ocean Park, Norfolk, Virginia.

WATSON-M'INTYRE RACE.

A large amount of money will change hands on the Watson-McIntyre race. The men are fleet and it is believed that the half mile will be made in 2 minutes and 5 seconds.

THE MINNESOTA REGATTA.

The Winnipeg oarsmen have kept up their record this year at the annual regatta in the State of Minnesota by winning the single scull race and the senior four oared event, for which there is always a hard struggle. The crack crews of St. Paul and Minneapolis were downed with comparative ease. Fox was the winner of the single scull race.

THE TURF.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Flood Tide, owned by Porter Ashe of California, won the Iroquois stakes, one mile and six hundred yards, in 1:21 yesterday.

LACROSSE.

The Victorias have received a challenge to play the Vancouvers on the 24th inst., but as they will probably play Westminster on that day the Vancouvers will have to wait awhile. The next time these teams play, it is to be hoped that whatever club is defeated, they will accept it in a graceful manner, and not seemingly endeavor to degrade the national game.

NANAIMO CORPORATION PRIZE.

New Westminster rifle range, Brownsville, Aug. 6.—The second match in which the first prize in addition to a money prize is a challenge cup presented by the mayor and council of Nanaimo developed more good shooting, Wiesby of Victoria taking first place. The conditions attached to the Nanaimo corporation prize are that it shall be won twice in succession before becoming the property of any competitor. Last year it was won by Gr. F. Sargison with 43 points, the shooting being done with the short Snider. Following is the score:

	SCORE.	PRIZE.
Corp Wiesby, B C G A	47	$20 00
Peter Grant, Vancouver R A	45	5 50
Pte Freud, N W R	45	5 00
Pte H C Chamberlain, N W R	46	3 50
Lieut Cotton, N W R	44	3 50
H Collins, Vancouver R A	44	2 50
Capt Woolcombe, V R	43	2 50
Pte Fletcher, N W R	43	2 50
W H Forrest, Vancouver R A	43	2 50

One ex counted out.

NO. 3—LIEUT. GOVERNOR'S CUP.

New Westminster Rifle Range, Brownsville, (3 p. m.) Aug. 7.—This match will not be concluded before the hour of going to press. The ranges are 200, 500 and 600 yards, seven shots each range. The score at 200 and 500 yards are as follows:

Pt Freud, N W R	46
Pt H C Chamberlain, N W R	42
Cr Newberry, B C B G A	40
Gr Sargison, " "	50
Corp Wiesby " "	45
Lt Cotton, N W R	50
Pt J C Chamberlain, N W R	50

The cup has to be won twice before becoming the property of any competitor. It was won last year by Pt. Sharp of the N. W. rifles. The Victoria contingent have done fairly so far and it is expected will do better as they become accustomed to the range.

NEW WESTMINSTER STAKES.

New Westminster Rifle Range, Brownsville, Aug. 7.—At the opening hour this morning the smoke was so thick on the range that firing at 500 yards in the third had to be postponed. The fourth match was then taken up. This was the "New Westminster stakes" match, the first prize in addition to the money prize being a challenge cup presented by the citizens of New Westminster. The 2nd prize is the "Occident Challenge Cup," presented by the late J. Howison, in addition to a money prize. The ranges were 200 and 400 yards, five shots each range. The score was as follows:

	SCORE.	PRIZES.
Pt Fraser, N W R	47	cup & $10 00
W H Forrest, Vancouver	47	cup & 7 50
Lt Cotton, N W R	46	5 00
Pt Fletcher, N W R	46	3 50
Pt Chamberlain, N W R	44	2 50
Gr Langley, B C B G A	43	2 50
P A Grant, Vancouver	43	2 50
Gr W H Collis, B C B G A	43	2 50
Gr Wolfenden, B C B G A	43	2 50

Four forty-two's were counted out. The highest possible scores were made to-day at 400 yards by Lt. Cotton and Private Fletcher of the New Westminster Rifles. Firing at 300 yards in the third match will probably not be completed until 4 o'clock. The New Westminster cup was held by Gr. Langley last year, who won it with a score of 44, short Snider rifle.

Chemainus Mill.

The Courier says the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Co.'s sawmill is only running on three quarter time at present. They are turning out about 20,000 feet of lumber per day, which is being shipped to Nanaimo and Victoria. The company are building a pile driver for use in the erection of their new mill adjoining the site of the present structure. Work on the new building is expected to commence some time the coming fall. Several large scows are being built for use in transporting lumber.

Westminster Notes.

The lacrosse club has lately been greatly strengthened by the addition of Mr. M. Cottingham, to its first team. He is employed at the Queen's hotel, and it is to be hoped he will be induced to remain in the city, as he is a capital lacrosse player and a good all around athlete.

An old and weather beaten straw hat was to be seen this morning hung on Capt. Poole's old flag pole. What this proceed could not even be guessed at for a time, but it was finally decided that the signal had no reference to the future but had a local "tale attached" to it. MR. DAVIE'S MANIFESTO.

Mr. DAVIE's announcement that "in accepting a portfolio in the government his primary object is the construction of another transcontinental railroad," will strike the public with surprise. The public, until this announcement was made, was not aware that the interests of the Canadian Western required a champion for it in the cabinet. The public, accepting the grant made to that company last winter in good faith, has regarded the issue settled. During the closing hours of the House last session the Canadian Western Railway land grant came up as an issue, but Mr. DAVIE and others, notwithstanding the protest of the Vancouver board of Trade, passed favorable judgment on it, and from an issue it was translated into a law of the province. The question therefore is no longer an issue. The friendship of the Attorney-General is no longer indispensable to it. All that is now left to the government is to carry out the provisions of the contract as fast as the conditions therein are complied with by the company. This is the way the people look at it. They regard the Canadian Western Central railway issue settled, and they further hold that if the railway must retain a lawyer, let him be a private citizen. Mr. DAVIE, however, is not so minded if we interpret his manifesto correctly. He is in great trepidation lest the railway should not be built, and his solicitude reaches such a pitch that he unwittingly conveys the idea to the public that should the government chance to fall into a capricious humor it would crayfish on its latest legislative act, and in order that he may not be compelled to stultify himself makes the championship of the enterprise conditional on his acceptance of the Attorney-Generalship. This is a trick too transparent to be resorted to by the veriest demagogue. It raises an issue where there is none, or if this view does not meet the requirements of the case, what else does it argue that an act of parliament stands for no more with the government than a puff of wind. But suppose the government, through influences too occult for us at this juncture to attempt to specify, should withdraw their support from the Canadian Western Railway Co. What then? How would that organization be affected? To what extent would its status be altered? We fail to see that the status of the company would be affected in any respect whatever. The fiat has gone forth, the grant has been made, and now naught remains but for the parties of the second part to carry out the stipulations of the bargain, and until they fail to do this the government's good or ill will is of no consequence. Mr. DAVIE, therefore, is begging the question. He has raised a phantom of his own. His position in this matter is just about as absurd as President HARRISON's would have been if in his speeches during the presidential campaign he had announced to the people his intention of championing the 15th Amendment. Or to draw an illustration nearer home, Mr. DAVIE might have made the Attorney Generalship conditional on his continued and strenuous support of the Four inch Wagon Tire Act, or better still, he might have made the portfolio in question conditional on his active support of the Act which has thrown a wall of protection around the legal fraternity. Of all the political manifestoes we have ever perused this is the most flagrant as an expression of charlatanry. The true demagogue veneer his pleadings with the language of plausibility, but in this instance we have a vaporing so attenuated that the most careless can see through it, and the humiliating sight is presented of a man so sterile of expedients that he conjures up a phantom whereon to build a policy. There is but one inference to be drawn from Mr. DAVIE's alleged design to champion an issue which is no longer an issue, and that is (unless we assume that he has entered upon his second childhood) that the government contemplates a modification, or perhaps the repeal, of the Canadian Western railway grant, else why should he lay so much stress upon the matter? If things are sailing smoothly; if the government is satisfied that in making the grant it pursued a wise and politic course, whence comes it that it is necessary to allude to the Northern Railway at all? We commend Mr. DAVIE's address to the serious study of the electors, and if they can deduce anything from it but a menace to the Northern Railway, or at the best the utterance of a man who does not know the difference between an issue and an acknowledged fact, we give it up, and confess ourselves too obtuse to deal with the refinements of provincial politics.

OPPOSING PROGRESS.

Would it not be just as well for the Colonist in opposing the Westminster-Saanich railway, to offer a substitute? It has a substitute, we are aware, but it is without form and void. Let the Colonist's scheme take form so that we may look at it and size it up. The Colonist cannot well dispute but that we should have quicker connection with the mainland than at present, and that it is eminently desirable that this city be made a terminal point if possible. The Colonist, therefore, has no right to oppose the Saanich railway without supplying a substitute, and one at the same time which promises rapid materialization. THE TIMES is prepared to support any scheme which will promote the welfare of this city, it matters not who the individuals are, or where they come from. If the Colonist has a better scheme than the Saanich railway, let it be put in shape and brought before the curtain. THE TIMES will not be satisfied with only one railway.

ATHLETICS.

There never has been a time in the history of civilized nations, when a fair stand up fight, brutal as the attendant consequences might be, was regarded by the general public with disfavor. Brute strength and the brute courage to use it, have been regarded always with admiration, and very probably always will be so long as a state of society exists productive of disagreements which can be settled only by main strength and awkwardness. Much stress has been laid on the athletic games of the Greeks being non-brutal. Theirs were manly sports, it is alleged. They did not maul each other in their athletic bouts, "hammer and tongs." The Greeks knew nothing of boxing and cared less, all because when offence was given of a serious character they ripped each other open, as was the custom in Arkansaw something over a generation ago. The Greeks were not in the habit of settling disputes in a brutal way. Oh! no, they simply sliced each other up or invited a man to imbibe a little of the juice of hemlock. Wrestling was encouraged by the Greeks because it was a part of the education of a soldier. In those days they fought at close quarters, and if for any reason the sword should become useless the soldier had to grapple with his antagonist, not strike him, for in the latter event the pot metal helmet or breast plate would disable the hand. Of the gladiatorial games of the Romans we need not speak, nor for that matter of the tourneys in which knights participated to the jeopardy of life and limb. It is difficult to say what had been the consequences if, when fire arms had been invented, society had not already undertaken to settle individual disputes by course of law. Fire arms put the weak and the strong on an equal footing. The squire became as good a man as the knight. Differences, however, had to be settled someway, and since it was forbidden to murder, boxing was evolved, and the sequence of that was prize fighting, the latest star exhibition of which was held on the 8th July last at Richburg, Miss. The seance was contrary to law. The respective Governors of the States of Mississippi and Louisiana, gentlemen, who for a number of years past have ignored the genteel practice of shooting negroes for political reasons, invoked the law to stop the fight. But it was of no use, the constables and the sheriffs and the soldiers declined to interfere. But these governors, whose moral sensibilities were not shocked at the sight of slaughtered negroes, were not to be baulked of their prey, a pair of brutal prize fighters, and Mr. SULLIVAN has been extradited from the sovereign State of New York. His journey south has been a constant ovation. Thousands have crowded the depot platforms to catch a sight of him, ladies have presented him with bouquets, and on his arrival at New Orleans he held a reception. Of what use is it to punish this man now that the law has been mocked? The moral effect has been destroyed, and JOHN L., if he is imprisoned, will, when his term expires, walk forth a martyr and a pet. It has been demonstrated now beyond cavil, that it is simply fatuous to undertake to punish a venial offence though couched with brutality. SULLIVAN already has been recompensed for a year's imprisonment, and the two governors have made themselves laughing stock for fools.

DISASTERS.

In the United States, since the Johnstown catastrophe, disasters by fire and flood have followed each other in quick succession, and to cap the climax of these misfortunes the passage of the hat has come to be as indispensable a corollary as the inevitable contribution box. As the particulars of the recent fire at Spokane are meagre, we are unable to pass an opinion on the efficiency of the fire department of that city, but we may presume that the same old story will be repeated, "inadequate water facilities," as was the case with Seattle. These warnings will have had the effect, not alone to increase the vigilance of the fire department, but to instil in the mind of every property holder the necessity of supplying adequate means for meeting all the contingencies arising from conflagrations. Our fire department seems to be in a very effective condition, and it is reassuring to know that steps have been taken to insure its ability to cope with fire under the most disadvantageous circumstances. Money so expended is well invested. We could ill afford a million dollar blaze, let alone one which would eat up the business portion of the city.

To the Electors of Victoria City District:—

GENTLEMEN:

In accepting a portfolio in the Government, my primary object is the construction of another trans-continental railroad, which, penetrating the northern part of British Columbia, and opening up the important district of Cariboo, will traverse Vancouver Island, making Esquimalt or Victoria its terminus.

It will be my endeavor, should you honor me with your confidence by re-electing me, to apply the resources of the country, so far as can be legitimately done, in furtherance of this project, which as a private member I warmly supported during the last session of the House.

It was upon the understanding that the Northern Railway should be a matter of Government policy, that I agreed to enter the cabinet.

I shall take the opportunity of entering into particulars at public meetings, which I intend to call for the purpose, during the course of the canvass.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,

THE SEIZED SEALER

Interview With Acting Secretary of the State Department.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Acting Secretary Wharton was asked this morning if the state department had anything to say in regard to the escape of the British bark Black Diamond.

"The Department," Wharton said, "has not been advised of the seizure of the Black Diamond or any other vessel. It has no news on the subject, and therefore has no statement to make in regard to its future action in the matter."

"Have you seen the statement that it was your desire to let the Black Diamond escape after capture, and that therefore but one man was put aboard her from the Rush?"

"No," said Wharton, "I have not seen that statement, and have no means of knowing that it is true. This whole matter of the seizure of these vessels, so far as it has gone, is under the control and direction of the treasury department. If there is any blame attaching to these seizures, it must be laid at the door of congress. It passed a law requiring the President to issue a proclamation, extending to the waters of Behring Sea the same protection to seals and other fur bearing animals as is accorded the fur bearing inhabitants of Alaska and the water thereof by the general act of fish and game, and the law is simply being enforced. That is what we are here for, to carry out the laws that congress enacts. So far this question has not become an international one. The state department has not been informed of any sort of proceedings, and therefore has nothing to act upon."

THE FESTIVE TRAIN ROBBER.

Passengers on a Missouri Train Relieved of Their Valuables.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 5.—One of the boldest train robberies ever perpetrated in Missouri, occurred on the Wabash train which left Union Depot at 8:30 last night. The train had run about four miles when two men entered the rear door of the St. Paul sleeper. One of them had utilized a white handkerchief as a mask and the other a red one. They ordered all the passengers to hold up their hands, and enforced their orders with a brace of Colt's revolvers. One of the men approached each passenger and, while the other kept watch of the victim, took everything of value that could be conveniently found. There were only a few passengers in the car, and the work of robbery was soon completed. As soon as all had been relieved of their valuables, amounting to $175 in cash and two gold watches, the robbers backed out of the front door of the car, keeping their shooting irons pointed towards the passengers. They stepped on the platform and just as they were about to enter the Illinois Central coach Conductor Roach came out of the door, being on his first collection trip. One of the robbers pushed his revolver under the conductor's nose and with an oath ordered him to hold up his hands. The conductor supposed from the nature of their disguise that a number of railroad men who had taken passage on the train were playing a practical joke upon him. With a laugh he attempted to pass them. Just then a gust of wind removed the masks of the men, and he knew then that the affair was in dead earnest. He had no weapon, but he carried his lantern in his hand, and with that he dealt one of the men a vicious blow on the head, smashing the glass and extinguishing the light. The other robber fired at him with his revolver, but the bullet missed its mark. The other robber had by this time recovered himself, and he too fired at the conductor. His aim was no better than his partner. The robbers then, with another parting shot at the conductor, swung off the train. The train was running at a rate of 25 miles an hour, and the conductor did not attempt to follow them. One of the passengers who heard the shots pulled the cord that connects with the air brake and stopped the train. A posse of men are searching for the robbers.

THE NEWS IN HELENA.

A Remarkable Series of Disasters for the New State.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 5.—Much comment has been excited here by the extraordinary series which has been formed by conflagrations in Washington. First came the dreadful disaster to Seattle, the chief city of the new state. From Seattle in the west it seemed as if fire had travelled directly east, for Ellensburg, a flourishing inland city, was nearly destroyed shortly after. Now in the extreme east, Spokane, which next to Seattle, is the principal city of the state, suffers by far a worse calamity.

SOLIDLY BUILT OF BRICK.

The business district of Spokane was in a strip between the Northern Pacific railroad tracks and the Spokane river. This strip was five squares across, and about seven squares in length. It was solidly built up with brick and stone structures, the cost of which varied from $25,000 to $125,000. Ten banking houses, five hotels, an opera house, and many wholesale establishments, doing business estimated at $500,000, were situated within the district described.

ABOUT $15,000,000.

The estimate of $50,000,000 is believed here to be exaggerated. Half that amount is thought to be nearer the actual figures, assuming that the report of the complete destruction of the city is correct.

THE CITY HAD NO FIRE ENGINES.

The population of Spokane is 20,000. The city possesses supposedly water works modelled after the Holly system with a capacity of 9,000,000 gallons daily. There were no fire engines, but it was believed that by the system in use five or six good sized streams of water could be concentrated on any block in case of fire. The fire department was a volunteer one.

LOSSES AND INSURANCE.

As to insurance the best information here states that no large amounts were carried. Buildings that cost from $30,000 to $40,000 are known to have had but $6,000 to $10,000 insurance. The chief losers, as nearly as can be learned from the reports that have reached Helena, were the following: Holly, Mason, Marks & Co., wholesale hardware, $125,000; "Great Eastern" wholesale and retail dry goods store, $100,000; Beckman & Griffith, wholesale and retail grocers, $30,000; Mason, Smith & Co., $40,000. Pacific hotel, $40,000; Grand hotel, $40,000; Windsor hotel, $40,000; Hyde block, $75,000; Washington block, $65,000; Carmen block, $20,000; Cronover block, $30,000; Moore block, $30,000; First National bank block, $25,000; Wolverton block, $25,000; Frankfort block, $25,000; Tull block, $25,000.

A PLOT FRUSTRATED

By the Defeat of the Dervish Leaders, Wad-el-N-Jumi.

Cairo, Aug. 6—Startling news comes from Tokki, that documents have been found in the abandoned camp of Wad-el-N-Jumi and upon the dead bodies of his chiefs, which prove the existence of a wide spread conspiracy, with its centre among the high officials of the Egyptian army and prominent Egyptian leaders in Cairo itself. The invasion by Wad-el-N-Jumi with his handful of dervishes is shown by these documents to have been merely an incident of this conspiracy, which was to have been followed by wholesale treason on the part of the conspirators, who had planned to carry with them a large part of the Egyptian army. The disclosure will serve to explain what has up to this time puzzled everybody here, how the leader of the Dervishes expected to accomplish anything with so insignificant a force as he brought with him across the desert. It is now clear that he expected to be joined at the Nile by deserters from the Egyptian army itself, headed by the traitors with whom he had been in correspondence and by some of the tribes upon whose friendship the Egyptians depended. Just why the traitors at the last moment abandoned the brave dervish leader to his fate and how it came that their treachery was not consummated is not clear. It is quite likely, however, that their plans were to throw off their masks and join Wad-el-N-Jumi in an invasion after they had crossed the Nile, and that Col. Wadehouse's determination to prevent them reaching the river at all hazards, and his unexpected success in carrying out this purpose, threw into confusion and disorganized their carefully laid plans.

A Persian Custom.

At Lady Rosebery's dinner party the Shah threw his asparagus ends over his left shoulder, to satisfy a Persian superstition that no luck will pursue the asparagus eater unless this rule is complied with. In accordance with Court etiquette the Prince of Wales and suite followed the example of the illustrious guest. It is said that the footmen and three waiters intent to sue Lord Rosebery under the Employers Liability Act for injuries sustained.

Don's Want Any Foreigners.

Apropos of the royal marriage, it is said that the two younger princesses of Wales, Toria and Parry, as they are affectionately called in the family circle, are much of the same mind as their married sister, and that they greatly prefer Englishmen to the representatives of any other nation. Now, therefore, that the standard of revolt against the perpetual policy of German union has been raised, it is not improbable that the example of the Duchess of Fife will be followed by Princesses Victoria and Maud.

Salvationists.

The statistics of the Salvation Army furnished by "General" Booth at the last grand cor course showed an increase of 283 corps and 1665 officers. The march past the general was performed by over 20,000 soldiers and was marked with intense fervor. Gauging the noise made by the host with their tambourines, drums and vocal hallelujahs by the din which a handful of the red-shirted brigade make upon our streets when out on a parade one might easily imagine the deafening effect of the "fervor" reported.

A Strong Cage for Criminals.

Whatcom has received an iron cage eight feet wide, twelve feet long and eight feet high. It is made of strips of chilled steel, which cross each other, with but little distance between each. The strips are welded and bolted solidly. The material out of which the cage is constructed is so hard that a file will scarcely make an impression on it. The cage is intended for the reception of the more desperate criminals, such as would be liable to find their way out of an ordinary cell. This style of cell is warranted to hold the worst jail breaker in the world, always provided the jailer keeps the cell locked. They are coming into use all over the United States. It was manufactured in the east, and will be used by the Whatcom county authorities to keep murderers and other desperate criminals in and it will well answer the purpose.

PROCLAMATION.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT CHANCELLOR Browning, Commissioner of the P. R., has this the 25th day of July, 1889, issued a proclamation warning all persons from purchasing lots from Samuel Greer in Lot 32, Group One. Now, may it please Your Lordship, I have never offered for sale any lots in said Lot 32, for that would be deception on the public, as the highest legal authority in British Columbia pronounced the title to that lot straw—not one cent as consideration having been given. Now, if Your Lordship will adjust your wig and recover from your deep studies of Blackstone and the laws of escoppel, you will be able to see that the four Indians who threw some cases out of Court last April were fully authorized under the definition in respect of the Pre-emption Record 1026, this being the Reserved Number of my land on English Bay. Come down and see me. I have a few corner lots (with a monument of one) yet left. I mean to sell, and the public will persist in buying them, notwithstanding Your Lordship's decision. Things will move just the same at English Bay.

All parties are hereby warned that Agnes and Smith have no title to Lot 32; all confirmed by the Legislature, and all sales will be void.

The Canadian Pacific Land and Mortgage Company, Limited, (Foreign).

Registered the 10th day of July, 1889.

CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT I HAVE THIS day registered "The Canadian Pacific Land and Mortgage Company, Limited, (Foreign)" under the "Companies' Act," Part IV. Registration of Foreign Companies.

The objects for which the Company is established are:

1. To purchase, take under any concession, lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, settle, improve, farm and cultivate lands of any tenure, franchises and hereditaments situate in the Dominion of Canada, the United States of North America, or elsewhere, including any mines, minerals, ships, steamboats, barges, and other vessels, engines, railway wagons, tanks, reservoirs, manufacturing plant, apparatus and stock in trade, and any other real and personal property of whatever description, whether the same be unencumbered or subject to any mortgage, charge, lien, easements, privileges, licenses, concessions or otherwise, and to develop the resources of any such properties by building any kind of structure thereupon, planting, reclaiming, clearing, mining, quarrying, excavating, damming, draining, farming, and otherwise dealing with and working the same, and to stock lands and farms, and to breed, grow and deal in all kinds of stock, cattle, horses, sheep and produce, and to erect and maintain thereon suitable buildings and structures, including slaughtering, refrigerating, and converting establishments.

2. To invest money by way of advance, or loan at interest to any person or persons, or corporation, upon the security of any property and securities whatever, real or personal, including produce, crops and manufactures, government and all other stocks, bonds, mortgages, or securities, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and generally to buy, manufacture, deal in and sell all kinds of goods, chattels, merchandise, produce and effects.

3. To aid, encourage and promote immigration, emigration and colonization, and for such purposes to lend and grant any sums of money, and to act as agents therefor.

4. To work, win, convert, sell, use or otherwise deal with all or any mineral property of the Company, to construct or acquire, take concessions of purchase or lease, hire, maintain, improve, work and use, or aid in, or subscribe towards the construction, maintenance, improvement and working of roads, ways, streets, tramways, wire tramways, electric or other power, telegraph and telephone lines and works, or other means of communication or appliances of a similar nature, railways, railway stock, locomotives, engines, docks, piers, harbors, quays, wharves, loading stages, jetties, slips, stores, bridges, canals, channels, wells, buoys, lights and beacons, viaducts, aqueducts, water works, flumes, culverts, ditches, warehouses, factories, shops, churches, chapels, schools, libraries, institutes, inns, foundries, brick kilns, reduction works, gas and water works, electric lighting or power works, hotels, mills, undertakings, works, and other buildings and structures, of every description, and for the above purposes to enter into and carry into effect any contracts, and apply for, accept, and carry into effect such concessions, licenses or authorities as may be deemed necessary or advisable.

5. To acquire running powers, rights or easements over and to make arrangements with any companies or persons for the joint working of any railway, tramway, or line of electric wire, or other similar means of communication.

6. To build, purchase, charter, hire or otherwise acquire, maintain, repair and use steam and other ships and vessels, and to carry on the business of ship owners, lightermen, wharfingers, dock owners, warehousemen, ship chandlers, commission and shipping agents, and to levy cranage, anchorage, lighterage and other dues and tolls, either in connection with the other businesses of the Company, or as an independent source of profit.

7. To transact all manner of agency and commission business, and in particular to act as agents for any persons or corporation in the purchase, sale, or management in any way of lands, hereditaments and other property in the Dominion of Canada, the United States of North America, or elsewhere, where the Company may for the time then being be carrying on business, and to carry on the business of general, commercial, mercantile, shipping or forwarding agents, or agents for any railway, steamship, or other company.

8. To accept and hold any property whatsoever upon any trust whatever, and to make advances against the same, and to issue debentures there against, and to act as trustees, attorneys or agents of or for any persons, living or dead, or of any company, corporation, public body or supreme government, and also as real or personal representatives of any deceased persons.

9. To transact all business connected with the investment and loan of money at interest, to receive money on deposit, and generally to transact and carry on every description of banking, discount, exchange and financial business.

10. To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

11. To build, lay out, settle, colonize and develop towns and villages on the lands acquired or controlled by the Company from time to time.

12. To purchase or otherwise acquire the exclusive or limited right to use information as regards any inventions, whether patented or not, which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to acquire any grants, charters, concessions, patents, patent rights, monopolies, brevets d'invention, copyrights or licenses, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights and information acquired.

13. To take or otherwise acquire, and hold or sell shares, stock, debentures, or any other interest in any other company, whether British or foreign, in which the liability of the members is limited, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

14. To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership or persons carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the business for the time being of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to make and carry into effect arrangements with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests or amalgamation, either in whole or in part, of this Company with any such company, corporation, society, partnership or persons.

15. To dispose of by sale, lease, underlease, exchange, surrender, mortgage or otherwise absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights or privileges of the Company for the time then being in carrying on business, and to carry on the business of general, commercial, mercantile, shipping or forwarding agents, or agents for any railway, steamship, or other company.

16. To accept and hold any property whatsoever upon any trust whatever, and to make advances against the same, and to issue debentures there against, and to act as trustees, attorneys or agents of or for any persons, living or dead, or of any company, corporation, public body or supreme government, and also as real or personal representatives of any deceased persons.

17. To transact all business connected with the investment and loan of money at interest, to receive money on deposit, and generally to transact and carry on every description of banking, discount, exchange and financial business.

18. To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

19. To build, lay out, settle, colonize and develop towns and villages on the lands acquired or controlled by the Company from time to time.

20. To purchase or otherwise acquire the exclusive or limited right to use information as regards any inventions, whether patented or not, which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to acquire any grants, charters, concessions, patents, patent rights, monopolies, brevets d'invention, copyrights or licenses, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights and information acquired.

21. To take or otherwise acquire, and hold or sell shares, stock, debentures, or any other interest in any other company, whether British or foreign, in which the liability of the members is limited, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

22. To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership or persons carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the business for the time being of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to make and carry into effect arrangements with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests or amalgamation, either in whole or in part, of this Company with any such company, corporation, society, partnership or persons.

23. To dispose of by sale, lease, underlease, exchange, surrender, mortgage or otherwise absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights or privileges of the Company for the time then being in carrying on business, and to carry on the business of general, commercial, mercantile, shipping or forwarding agents, or agents for any railway, steamship, or other company.

24. To accept and hold any property whatsoever upon any trust whatever, and to make advances against the same, and to issue debentures there against, and to act as trustees, attorneys or agents of or for any persons, living or dead, or of any company, corporation, public body or supreme government, and also as real or personal representatives of any deceased persons.

25. To transact all business connected with the investment and loan of money at interest, to receive money on deposit, and generally to transact and carry on every description of banking, discount, exchange and financial business.

26. To borrow and raise money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and upon such terms as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the repayment thereof by bonds or debentures, or by redeemable or irredeemable debenture stock (such bonds, debentures and debenture stock being made payable to bearer or otherwise) or by any other instruments, or by bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or in such other manner as may be determined, and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future), including the uncalled capital.

28. To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament, or legislative provision, decree or order of any colony, foreign government, body or authority, to incorporate the members as a body politic or corporate, in accordance with the laws and constitution of any country or state in which the Company shall be carrying on or its business of carrying on, any of its operations, and to take all steps and do all things necessary to give the Company, or any company subsidiary thereto, a legal foothold in any such country or state, and such legislative powers as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company therein.

29. To give any guarantee of whatever description in relation to the stock shares, debentures or other securities or obligations of any company or supreme, public, municipal or local body or authority, and generally to guarantee the performance of any covenant or obligation.

30. To transact all business connected with the investment and loan of money at interest.

31. To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration.

32. To appropriate and apply such parts of the capital of the Company as may be expedient to the payment of such brokerage, discounts and other expenses as may be deemed incidental to the formation and promotion of the Company, and the placing of its shares and debentures, or any part thereof.

33. To aid any government or state, or any municipal, local or other body politic or corporate, or company or association, or individuals with capital, credit, means or resources, for the prosecution of any works, undertakings, projects or enterprises.

34. To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either alone or in partnership or conjunction with any person or other association, and either as principals or agents, and to contract for the carrying on of any operation connected with the Company's business by any person or other association.

35. To carry out the objects comprised in each paragraph of this clause in as full and ample a manner, and construed in as wide a sense as they would be construed if each paragraph of this clause defined the objects of a separate, distinct and independent company, and so that such objects shall not, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be restricted by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph.

36. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, or which the Company shall consider incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and wherever domiciled.

The amount of capital stock of the said Company is £250,000, divided into 25,000 shares of £10 each.

The place of business of the said Company is located at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal of office this 10th day of July, 1889, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

(L.S.) C. J. LEGGATT,
jy19 Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

An exchange says: Bad smells are disagreeable, but they usually are the merciful warning attached by a wise providence to dangerous and harmful things. If your cellar or drain smells badly, clean out and disinfect them before they become the breeding place of diphtheria or typhus fever.

PERSONAL.

Items Telling of Movements of Well Known Persons.

C. D. Rand arrived last night from Vancouver.

Mrs. L. M. Starr and son were passengers from Vancouver last night on the steamer Islander.

A. Pendola arrived from the Interior last evening on the steamer Islander.

Colonel Prior, M. P., returned from Kamloops last night.

W. L. Carson, travelling freight and passenger agent of the C. P. R., arrived from Vancouver last night.

Ernest Lambert, London, Eng; L. H. Moran, New York; R. Burgess and wife, Toronto; J. R. Avery, Toronto; W. F. Carson and wife, Vancouver; W. Baillie-Grohman, Kootenay, are at the Driard.

J. A. Sayward returned last night from a short visit to Vancouver.

Mrs. Keefer, wife of Major Keefer, of Walla Walla, has been spending a few days in Victoria.

Mrs. Foltz, wife of Capt. Foltz, of Fort Assiniboine, Montana, is at the Oriental, and will leave to-morrow morning with her mother, Mrs. Keefer, and Mrs. Keefer, for Portland and The Dalles. The lady was shown around the city on Tuesday by Mr. C. S. Jones.

J. H. DeLone, of Walla Walla, left for Port Townsend this morning.

G. W. McKey, president of the Howard National Bank of Howard, Kansas, is in this city on a visit.

Mr. A. A. Green, and Mrs. and Miss Green left for San Francisco at 1 p. m. to-day. From the Bay City they will proceed to New York, and then to Europe. They expect to leave New York on the 21st inst. on the City of New York of the Inman line.

Hon. T. R. Humphreys was a passenger for California to-day in search of health.

S. DesBrisay, general agent in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, for Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's his ogenetic medicines, leaves to-night for the east working the territory between Vancouver and Winnipeg and eventually making Toronto his headquarters. The medicines for which Mr. DesBrisay is agent have been introduced and tested in Victoria during the past twelve months and tested with very good results. He is quite sanguine that it is only a matter of time till the histogenetic system supersedes the old schools.

Death.

Mr. Arthur Mercer, contractor, received word on Saturday of the death of his mother, aged 43, of apoplexy. The sad event took place at her residence in Woolwich on July 16th, and the news was only received by her bereaved son last Saturday.—Courier.

Quite Right.

An individual in a state of intoxication yesterday caused considerable danger to pedestrians and vehicles by reckless driving. To-day he appeared in the same condition, when his horse and wagon and himself were taken in charge by a police officer.

Wellington Hotel.

Mr. G. W. Kennedy, formerly of Osterhout & Kennedy, assumed control of the Wellington hotel, North Wellington, on the 1st inst., under a ten years' lease. He proposes to at once enlarge it by the addition of thirty more rooms for the accommodation of the public.

The Amelia.

Estimates are being formed as to the cost of repairing the disabled steamer Amelia, recently purchased at auction by Capt. J. G. Cox. It is understood that an expenditure of $4000 will suffice to put her in running order. At this figure, added to the purchase price, $1900, she is a cheap steamer. The route or ultimate purpose for which she is intended is not yet decided.

Death from Diphtheria.

Miss Margaret J. Duncan, a young woman residing with Mr. D. W. Gordon, M. P., died this morning from diphtheria. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. E. Duncan of Comox Road, who have only recently arrived from Ontario. The young lady was 21 years of age when death this morning cut short a very promising career.—Free Press.

Crops at Alberni.

The crops at Alberni are, on the whole, in good condition. An extra large quantity of hay has been gathered, and the potato crop along the canal, notwithstanding the continued drought, is in good condition owing to enough water being absorbed through the soil. The same can also be said of the oat crop.—Free Press.

Supt. Hepcraft.

The Superintendent of Provincial Police is not expected to return. It has transpired since his departure that he owes a large sum of money, about $1000 to T. Argyle, of Rocky Point, also several sums to parties in the city. He was last heard of on his way to New Orleans. Perhaps he holds a winning number in the Louisiana lottery or is on his way to interview John L. Sullivan.

For the South.

The Walla Walla sailed at 1 o'clock this afternoon for San Francisco with the following passengers from this port: Jno Bain, Harry Marbourg, Mrs. A. C. Renwick, Miss Canning, Hon. T. R. Humphreys, J. A. Hoskin, Mrs. T. Brown and 4 children, Miss Webster, Miss R. Johnson, A. A. Green, wife and daughter, Rev. W. N. Shearman, Lieut. Bayfield, Isaac Bechtel and 2 children, Miss G. Sansum.

Excursion Trip.

The steamer Princess Louise sails for the north at 7 o'clock this evening on the first local excursion trip of the season. The following are passengers: Miss Emma Shaw, correspondent of the Boston Transcript, D Douglas Dick, B. Dick, Rev. Pinsey and wife of Toronto, B Paskoell and several passengers for way ports. Commodore Irving was to be in command of the steamer with Capt. McCulloch as pilot.

Park Improvements.

This morning Mr. John Blair, an experienced landscape gardener, began the work of laying out the proposed improvements at Beacon Hill park. He is highly spoken of as an expert in this line and is credited with laying out more landscape designs than any man on the Pacific coast. The improvements are extensive and will require considerable time to complete, but when completed will be the crown of the charm of the park.

The Ross Affair.

J. W. Biglow, vice president of the Nevada Bank, is still in the city in connection with the Ross affair. Although the young man cabled to his parents for $4000 on Saturday, no reply has yet been received. Ross visited the city this morning, under Chief Sheppard's surveillance, for the purpose of taking a bath. As for young Hutton, he was seen at 9 o'clock last night, attired in his gaudy lawn tennis suit, going down Yates street at a rapid gait.

The Museum.

During the month of July Mr. John Fennin reports the contributions from the following ladies and gentlemen: Bessie Nuttall, Mrs. Dumbleton, Wm. McGrath, Master Tom Robinson, Miss K. Piddock, E. Mallandaine, Victor Spencer, Master William Wilson, Robt. McMicking, Alfred Flett, H. P. Dickenson, J. H. Seafe, C. T. Wrigglesworth, Geo Vienus, D. Wilson, Master R. W. Harris, J. A. McTavish, Master Jack Rither, Lady Douglas, Frederick Neeves.

The Black Diamond.

The now famous sealing schooner Black Diamond has moved from her anchorage near James Bay to near Point Ellice bridge. If this was Uncle Sam's country no doubt she would be put on exhibition at 50 cents per head, as the boat that outwitted the Canucks.

Bankanson, the "prize crew" of the Black Diamond, is still in the city domiciled at the Oriental Hotel. He is under the paternal wing of the United States consulate and is extremely reticent about the past and future.

Fine Fruit.

Mr. T. C. Sorby has shown us samples of the apples and plums grown by him this season. The plums are enormously large and very luscious, the effects of careful cultivation and attention. The apples are of fine flavor and equal to the best eastern articles. Wherever care and attention is given to the business, and the work is done scientifically, the very best possible results are obtained. Mr. Sorby, who, although only a small grower, is satisfied from his experience that success awaits the fruit raisers who go into the business properly.

Funeral of Mrs. Barnard.

The remains of the late highly esteemed Mrs. F. J. Barnard were interred this morning in Ross Bay cemetery. Services for the deceased were read at the late residence, Duval cottage, by the Rev. P. McF. McLeod, who also officiated at the grave. A numerous assemblage of pioneer and representative residents of the city attended as a mark of esteem to one held in high respect. Floral tributes in profusion, the gifts of friends, literally covered the casket and grave. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Hon. John Robson, Hon. P. O'Reilly, Edgar Marvin, sr., Jno. Irving, Rout Harvey, Wm Wilson, Dr. Hasington and F. C. Gamble.

Grass Fires.

The firemen were called out on another "still alarm" at nine o'clock last night to a fire on the east side of Beacon Hill. The fire was extinguished in a short time and the men were returning home when another blaze was seen on the road leading to Clover Point. The second fire was started in the high grass on the bank and the firemen were forced to wade into the salt water to fill their buckets. The malicious individuals causing these fires should be arrested. Night after night the firemen are called out to Beacon Hill to extinguish fires caused by careless smokers or design. The park keeper was not seen at any of the fires. It should be his duty to arrest the parties setting these fires nightly.

POLICE COURT.

The Daily Record of People Whose Habits are Corrected in Public.

(Before Hon. A. R. Richards, G. C.)

Peter Houlihan was accused of violating his well known temperance principles.

Peter protested his innocence of the scandalous charge of being drunk with much volubility and vehemence, but admitted that he had taken a drink or two with a friend this morning.

Supt. Sheppard was of opinion that Peter was even yet too much obfusticated to diagnose his own case—he was too drunk in fact to tell whether he had ever been sober. His Honor considered this aspect of the case minutely and concurred. He demanded that Peter should enter into his own recognizance to appear to-morrow for trial. His Honor also expressed himself as not quite clear on the point as to whether Peter was sober enough to be allowed at large, but Peter with a graceful bow and profuse thanks for the anxiety shown for his welfare, assured the court that he had nothing to say to-day on the subject, but would address it to-morrow. With a wave of his hat to the bench Peter vanished through the back door.

DISCHARGED.

Patrick Maloney, charged with stealing a watch and other articles from Indians was discharged.

SHOOTING WITH INTENT.

Peter Sinnott was charged with shooting at John Sharpe with intent to inflict bodily harm.

Peter Sharpe was about to testify to the circumstances of his going to the Prince of Wales saloon.

Supt. Sheppard here asked for the witness' cap. The cap had been in his (Sheppard's) hands a few minutes before and had now been concealed with the object of defeating the ends of justice.

After some delay Sharpe pulled the cap, with a bullet hole in the crown, out of his coat pocket.

In answer to His Honor the Superintendent remarked that this was an unwilling witness.

Witness—That man had no more intention of killing me than of killing himself. Drink, drink, that was all that was the matter with him. You can see now that he is not sober yet.

Supt. Sheppard—I can bring two or three men to prove that this man also drew a pistol on a man in the California Saloon.

The witness told His Honor that he had a good many drinks yesterday. I had been drinking all the time since we came down from the north, said he. At the Prince of Wales saloon yesterday a fellow who was in the company struck an old man. I said, don't strike an old man like that. He said, I'll strike you. I then struck him. The next thing I saw the prisoner with his coat off. He said, "come out in the yard, I want to see you." I said put on your coat, you are mad. So he was mad. I could see it in his face. I turned and was going into the saloon when I heard something fly over my head. I did not stop but ran, in case I might get another one. I did not look around. Did not see the prisoner with a pistol. Did not know he had one.

Supt. Sheppard—Did you duck your head going in the door?

Witness—Yes.

Supt. Sheppard—Did anyone tell you to duck your head?

Witness—Yes, some said "duck your nut" and I ducked.

Supt. Sheppard—The man who said that was named Goslin. He will be produced although he is not here to-day.

Witness—The prisoner came out here on the Islander.

His Honor—If you had not ducked your head would the shot have gone in your head?

Witness—I don't know sir.

His Honor to the Chief of Police—You will keep that (pointing to the cap).

Supt. Sheppard—Yes.

Witness (to Chief)—I suppose I can wear yours.

The case was then remanded.

NELSON CITY.

The Great Mining Centre of Kootenay—Future Metropolis.

J. P. Davies & Co. have placed upon the market a number of lots recently surveyed in the new townsite of Nelson, on Kootenay Lake, in the very centre of the rich Kootenay district. Nelson will be the future mining metropolis of southeastern British Columbia. It is situated on navigable waters, and the line of two projected railways. A short line of railway, charters for which have several times been obtained by the Ainsworth company, will connect Nelson with the Columbia river and lakes, and afford a highway to Revelstoke on the C.P.R. This line is certain to be built at an early day. One of the richest mines in the province is within a few miles of the city and many valuable locations are being developed within a radius of twenty or thirty miles. The site, we are informed by Mr. Busk, is a very fine one. There is a natural and very gentle incline from the lake for a distance of half a mile before the table land is reached, which will afford excellent drainage. The soil is favorable; good wood and pure water is convenient, and there is a saw mill within a few miles. Already about twenty houses are erected. One thing in favor of Nelson is this: It is one of very few possible locations for a town, on any natural highway in the whole district.

It will have no rival near it for the very good reason that the natural configuration of the country will repress the ardor of purely speculative gentlemen, who think a town site every ten miles or so, as in the prairie country to the east, is a desideratum of the future. There can be few towns in Kootenay, but these few will be large and wealthy ones—Helena, Butte and Denver—and Nelson will be the first of them.

Coroner's Inquest.

An adjourned inquest will be held this evening to ascertain the cause of the late R. MacNab Stuart's death. It is reported that the remains will be exhumed to hold a post mortem examination.

The Colquitz Affair.

The property holders along Colquitz street will meet to-night to consider various questions affecting their interests. Another cause for complaint, they say, has cropped out. It is the corporation allowing refuse from the filter at Beaver lake to trickle down the stream, which is worse than no water at all.

Colored Miners for Comox.

The s. s. Princess Louise, says the News-Advertiser, arrived in the harbor on Sunday morning about the same time as the Islander. She had been chartered to take ninety-five colored coal miners to Comox. The miners came through on the Pacific express. They were all from Pennsylvania, where they have been employed in the mines.

The Salmon Pack.

The salmon have been so numerous says the Columbian, during the past week that many of the canneries hauled out a number of their nets, not being able to handle all the fish caught. When the run begins to slacken these, of course, will be pressed into service again. The total pack up to date is estimated at 175,000 cases, and the largest pack ever made on the Fraser is now assured. The fishermen expect that the catch next week will be larger than ever, and if it is the pack will run up to surprisingly large figures.

It is safe now to pronounce the salmon run this season an unqualified success. Never before, since inception of salmon canning on the Fraser, says a good authority, has there been so many sockeyes in the river. The run, which fairly commenced about the 24th of last month, is now at its height, and the wildest hopes have been more than realized. The pack already exceeds the total of either of the last three years on the Fraser, and promises to be considerably the largest ever put up on the river.
